Sweet 16 field unveiled

Five state champs, three runners-up among gala's lineup

By Bruce Strand

Five of the eight reigning state champions and three runners-up are among the teams signed up for the 35th annual Pacesetter Sweet 16 Championships.

The state's most high-profile and longest-running summer tournament — as always, an old-fashioned one-class free-for-all with entrants from all four MSHSL divisions — is slated for Aug. 3-4 at College of St. Benedict's.

Totino-Grace, Breck, and Cherry are the boys state champs who'll be duking it out along with runners-up Wayzata and Mankato East. Minnetonka and Providence Academy are the girls state champs in the field along with runner-up Hopkins.

Minnetonka is the defending girls champion. Last year's boys champion, Delano, is not in the field this year.

Pairings for the Sweet 16 tournaments are listed on Page 9 at the end of this article. Championship games Sunday will start at 12:15 p.m. for the boys and 4:30 p.m. for the girls.

Boys entrants

Class 4A — Wayzata (24-2, second at state) returns Christian Wiggins (13 ppg), Wyatt McBeth (10.2) and Isaac Olstead (10.2). Mr. Basketball, Jackson McAndrew, is among the graduates. Hopkins (23-6) returns over 70 ppg with Anthony Smith (23), Jayden Moore (19), JJ Semanko (16.6) and Dave Hart (12). Sauk Rapids-Rice (18-9) returns almost 60 ppg with Spencer Swenson (20 ppg), Izayah Cook (13), Hudson Omoke (11.7) and Keller Hanson (11.0). Farmington (24-8, state entrant) is led by Ryan Beckwith (10 ppg) and Nik Domier (9.7).

Brogan Madson of Mankato East is among state tourney stars set for the Sweet Sixteen tournament.

Class 3A — Totino Grace (27-5, riding three consecutive state titles), brings back Tyler Wagner (13.5 ppg), Dothan Ijadingola (13), Chase Watley (12.8) and Tian Chatman (9.4) while graduating Mr. BB finalist Isaiah Johnson-Arigu. Mankato East (28-3, second at state) is led by Brogan Madson (16 ppg) and Ganden Gosch (10). Alexandria (23-7, fourth at state) is led by Chase Thompson (18.9), Mason Witt (12.7) and Talan Witt (9.0). Orono (19-12) returns over 50 ppg led by Nolan Groves (27) along with Brady Wooley (14.2) and Mitchell Kauch (10.5).

Class 2A — Breck (31-1, state champs) graduated Mr. BB finalist Daniel Freitag but returns Hanif Muhammad (16.2 ppg), Miles Newton (13.2), JJ Muskoke (11.6), and DeAngelo Dungy (7.9). Albany (30-3) features Zeke Austin (20 ppg) and Sam Hondl (16.8) who've starred on state champion and third-place teams. Caledonia (23-5) brings back Mason King (17.8), Reid Klug (14.8), Garrett Konz (13.3) and Ethan Stendel (8.5). Waseca (20-12, state entrant) is powered by Deron Russell (18 ppg) and Damarius Russell (13).

TOP 100 EXPO PARTICIPANTS

Pacesetter's annual Top 100 Expo Showcase was held Tuesday, July 2, with 56 girls and 54 boys on display for parents and college scouts at College of St. Benedict's. They were divided into six boys and six girls teams that played three games each. All-star teams and MVP's were chosen by college coaches. Named MVP's were Alexis Schafer of Chaska, a 6-foot senior forward; and Ethan Martin of Belle Plaine, a 6-foot-4 junior guard.

Sweet 16: Tonka, Providence girls back

Class 1A — Cherry (31-2) graduated Mr. BB finalist Isaac Asuma but returns Noah Sundquist (15 ppg), Noah Asuma (13), Isaiah Asuma (11.8), and Carson Brown (11.8). Dawson-Boyd (26.3), ranked No. 2 all season before a section upset loss, is powered by Brayson Boike (23 ppg), Gunner Liebl (17.8), and Drew Hjelmeland (14.8). Heritage Christian (23-8, fifth at state) returns its top six scorers led by Joshua Sokeye (18), Abu Tarawallie (13.7), Owen Haag (12), and Jonah Moulton (12). Ada-Borup West (24-6) brings back Cayden Dahl (14 ppg), Austin McCraven (11), and Mason Larson (10).

Maddyn Greenway (with ball), Emma Millerbernd and Providence Academy should be contenders again.

donia (20-9) will return all-conference picks Josie Foster, Nicole Banse and Aubrie Klug.

Class 1A — Mayer Lutheran (21-11, fifth at state) returns Isabelle Keaveny and Clara Keaveny, each close to 15 ppg). Hancock (27-3) is led by Kaitlyn Rohloff (22 ppg) and Brooke Versteeg (10 ppg). Cass Lake-Bena (21-7) features Gabrielle Finaday (2,203 career points) with Alexia Rose and Rayahna Staples-Franklin also back. Minneota (27-4) has just one double-digit scorer back but always seems to re-load. A team looking for its first state trip, Kelliher-Northome (25-4), graduated two high-scoring sisters while returning Kylee Binkley (15.3 ppg) and Allison Lundin (10.6).

Girls entrants

Class 4A — Minnetonka (29-2) is powered by Division I bound stalwarts Aaliyah Crump (24.5, signed by Texas), Lanelle Wright (13.6), and Ari Peterson (12.3), a freshman transferring from Providence Academy. Last year most of their top players missed the Sweet 16 because they were busy with AAU or taking a break, and the Skipper backups won it anyway. Coach Brian Cosgriff said the top players will probably not be involved this year either. Hopkins (27-4) graduated Miss BB finalist Liv McGill but returns six of their top seven including Tatum Woodson (13 ppg), Lauren Hillesheim (12) and three junior high girls who averaged 23 ppg. Hopkins had a long run of Sweet 16 titles before being not able to attend the tournament last year. St. Michael-Albertville (24-8, third at state) is paced by Cali Jahnke (14.8 ppg) and Abby Hoselton (12.1). Eden Prairie (20-9, section runner-up to Tonka by 41-39 score) returns about 60 ppg with Tori Schlagel (18.2), Rae Ehrman (14.4), Ella Hardwick (11.6, Vanessa Jordan (9.6) and Cam Dennin (6.3).

Class 3A — Stewartville (22-10, fourth at state) is led by two-time state tourney veterans Audrey Shindelar (14.9) and Jayci Rath (7.8). They're the only 3A team in the fold.

Class 2A — Providence Academy (28-4, riding three consecutive state titles) is propelled by junior superstar Maddyn Greenway (34.2 ppg). The Lions, Sweet 16 runners-up to Minnetonka last summer, also return Hope Counts (9.2) and Emma Millerbernd (9.7). Cale-
